

An opportunity for the children of Horsford Primary School

A place for courage, compassion and responsibility.

If you are in year 3 what adjectives can you think of to describe how you felt on your first day at Mill Lane?

What or who helped you on your first day at Mill Lane?

How might you have felt if all of those things that helped you hadn't of been there?

Who are Young Interpreters?

- empathetic buddies
- friendly and caring
- good role-models
- familiar with school's systems and routines
- EAL themselves
- speakers of English only

What do Young Interpreters do?

- be a buddy to new arrivals during break and lunch times
- help new arrivals settle in
- show parents and visitors around the school
- help a pupil new to English to communicate a problem/ difficulty
- demonstrate school systems and routines
- use all your languages, including English
- not replace professional interpreters or bilingual assistants

 Ensuring pupils operate within these parameters

How can you sign up?

I am going to ask your class teacher to email me a list of all of names of the children who would like to represent the school as a young interpreter.

Dear God

Please help us to always look out for people who need our help.

We think now of anyone who may need our help today.

Amen
